PROGRAMME
2025 24 HOURS OF LE MANS

FRIDAY 6 & SATURDAY 7 JUNE

SCRUTINEERING

The 10-day long 24 Hours of Le Mans extravaganza will kick off on Friday 6 June, with the start of the scrutineering sessions. The pre-race checks are undertaken on Place de la République in the city centre, and the event is one of the highlights of the Le Mans experience.

SUNDAY 8 JUNE

TEST DAY – FREE PRACTICE 1 & 2

This is a chance for teams to familiarise themselves with the full 13.626km track and rack up a few laps. It's also an opportunity to fine-tune their preparations for the 24-hour marathon that awaits them in a week's time. Rookies will be able to get their bearings as they complete ten compulsory laps, five of which will be timed, as required by the regulations. An eagerly awaited day at the track, in short!

WEDNESDAY 11 JUNE

FREE PRACTICE 1

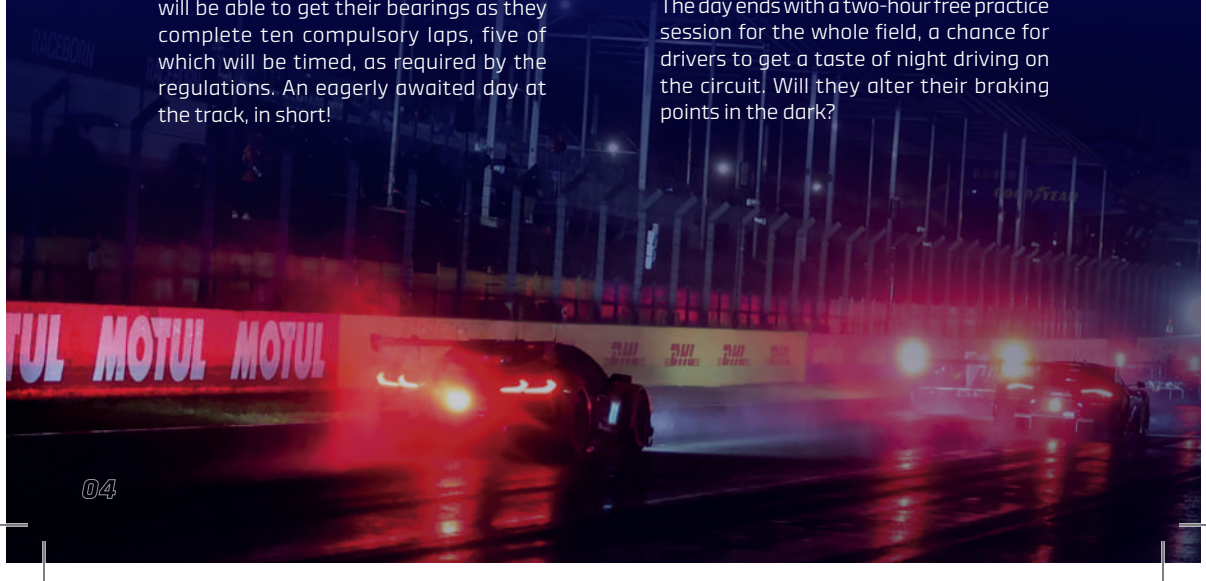

Teams will benefit from three hours of track time to test form and tweak settings. Drivers practise long stints and check the car's aerodynamics, tyres and fuel consumption. After that, if there is time left, some drivers are likely to demonstrate their car's speed in preparation for the qualifying sessions.

QUALIFYING

All eyes on the clock! This session is a race against time, the aim being to record the fastest lap possible and go through to Thursday's Hyperpole, when the top eight cars in each class get the chance to wage battle for the best slots on the grid.

FREE PRACTICE 2

The day ends with a two-hour free practice session for the whole field, a chance for drivers to get a taste of night driving on the circuit. Will they alter their braking points in the dark?

THURSDAY 12 JUNE

FREE PRACTICE 3

Competitors will have another three hours to get to grips with the Circuit des 24 Heures. Fine-tuned preparation is all-important in a race like this. Drivers, especially rookies, need all the practice they can get on this circuit.

HYPERPOLE

Cars that qualify for this spectacular session set out to secure the best place on the grid, deploying their full speed on the 13.626-kilometre circuit as the sun goes down. To train the spotlight on amateur drivers, this session is reserved for Bronze drivers in the LMGT3 class.

HYPERPOLE CEREMONY

The polemen in the Hypercar, LMP2 and LMGT3 classes are honoured in a special ceremony on the Pit Straight.

FREE PRACTICE 4

In this last practice session, drivers continue to get used to the circuit in the dark. No easy task! After nightfall, senses are heightened and spectators marvel at the glow of brakes and the dance of headlights.

SATURDAY 14 JUNE

WARM-UP

It's race day! But first, the runners and riders benefit from the Warm-up, a final track session to ensure they're well and truly ready for the main event. During this 15-minute free practice session, the cars are tweaked and tuned to adapt to the day's weather conditions.

STARTING CEREMONY

A spectacular ceremony precedes the start of race every year. You can witness this magnificent display from the grandstands or on our giant screens.

START

The cars are unleashed for the start of the 93rd 24 Hours of Le Mans.

SUNDAY 15 JUNE

FINISH

There are just a few laps to go, but anything can still happen. Then, at 4 pm, drivers and mechanics can breathe easily again: they have come through a testing 24 hours! All the cars, except the winner, go to the Parc Fermé.

PODIUM

The 24 Hours of Le Mans podium ceremony takes place on the Pit Straight at 4 pm on Sunday 15 June. Traditionally, the spectators invade the track to get as close as possible to the podium!

THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB DE L'OUEST & CLUB ACO

The Automobile Club de l'Ouest (ACO) was set up in 1906 and is the founder of the 24 Hours of Le Mans and other major motorsport events in France (24H Motos and the 24H Camions truck race).

Since 2024, the ACO has benefited from the FIA's 3-star environmental accreditation and is ISO 20121 certified, the reference for responsible event management. In September 2024, the 24 Hours of Le Mans circuit was elected "France's Favorite Monument".

Alongside its sporting activities, the ACO is also a club with over 38,000 members driven by a passion for motorsports. In addition, Club ACO constantly advocates for the rights of motorists.

During sports events, Club ACO opens exclusive hospitality venues at the Le Mans circuits.

The Club organises numerous events throughout the year, bringing together members who share a love of motorsports and especially car racing.

Jean-Sébastien Monné © M.Guillon

WHERE EAST MEETS WEST

L'AUBERGE DE BAGATELLE

After working in a number of Michelin-starred restaurants, Jean-Sébastien Monné moved to Le Mans. In his kitchen, East meets the West in dishes where local ingredients are melded with flavours from further afield. Take, for example the roasted monkfish with coconut and saffron from Vaulogé in La Sarthe, or roast venison with cocoa nibs from Ikori.

MAP OF THE CITÉ PLANTAGENÊT

LE MANS

LE MANS, ROYAL CITY

THE PLANTAGENET DYNASTY HAS MADE ITS MARK ON THE SARTHE REGION. WALK IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THIS ANGLO-FRENCH FAMILY DYNASTY RIGHT AT THE HEART OF LE MANS.

PLANTAGENET CITY STEP INTO THE PAST

Le Mans' historic center is impressive for its scale and uniformity. Spread over 15 hectares, it is made up of about a hundred timber-framed houses, with the oldest dating back to the 15th century. Many carved corner pillars and engraved lintels tell the story of the city's commercial activities and keep its legends alive.

The bell tower of the Cathedral of Saint Julian rises up like a beacon, forming a link between the city's Roman and Gothic architectures. The cathedral houses two treasures, namely a magnificent chapel decorated with 47 painted angels playing musical instruments. And a stained-glass window depicting the Ascension, dating back to the 12th century - the oldest stained-glass window in the world still in situ.

GALLO-ROMAN WALL ONE OF A KIND

Built between the 3rd and 4th centuries, these walls measured more than a kilometer, and encircled the old city of Vindinum, the capital of the Gallic people of Aulerques Cénomans.

Today, only 500 meters of the geometrically patterned walls remain, punctuated with 11 towers and three archways. Le Mans' walls are the best preserved of those from the ancient Roman empire, alongside those of the two imperial capitals, Rome and Constantinople, known now as Istanbul.

WALLS OF RENOWN

Visible from the river, the walls are mainly red in color and very striking. And this was doubtless the aim of its patrons - to demonstrate the city's power and wealth. The refinement of the patterns, whether diamonds, triangles or hourglass shapes, and the quality of the construction - with alternating brick patterns, rows of pale limestone and dark brown sandstone bound in pink mortar - reinforce this theory.

The City of Le Mans has initiated the UNESCO world heritage registration process for its Gallo-Roman walls.

Over the three days, artists create live works on mobile structures and everything is in festival mode featuring DJ sets, local food trucks, children's workshops and more. The art works are then exhibited in all the city's neighborhoods. Every year Le Mans also commissions new, large-scale permanent wall paintings and there are almost 30 works scattered across the city for you to discover.

SETH

In 2022, 39 artists took their turn during the festival. Seth was one of them and he created a large-scale anamorphic piece spread across three buildings and six floors right in the center of Le Mans.

The wall painting, called Rabbit Hole, takes us with Alice and the white rabbit into a dizzying world. His work was voted the second most beautiful wall art in the world in June 2022 by the Street Art Cities website.

QUEEN'S ABBEY
ROYAL ABBEY OF ÉPAU

In 1230 Bérengère de Navarre, Richard the Lionheart's wife, decided to found a large Cistercian abbey, the Royal Abbey of Épau. The building's Gothic architecture upholds the order's values to the letter, namely austerity and renunciation. The Department of Sarthe took over the abbey in 1958 and today it is one of the most significant cultural centers in Sarthe. Each year, the abbey's teams provide a large exhibition, a walk-through photographic display in the gardens, music festivals and sound illuminations for New Year.
